Creator God,

MESSY CHURCH

Our next Messy Church is on Saturday 20th July, 2-4pm in St Michael's. It's faith-building fun for families with Primary aged and younger children. There's crafts and activities, worship and food together to finish. Let us know you're coming at office@cumnor.org

AN UNUSUAL VISITOR

One of the joys of ministering in a beautiful, village church is meeting some of the many and varied visitors to St Michael's. This week, I discovered that a small kestrel was roosting for the night in the Transept. Oxfordshire Wildlife Rescue advised that the best thing to do was to leave it overnight and then keep the doors open the next day so it could make it's own way out. When Richard Mayon-White opened up on Tuesday morning, it had moved into the nave and he set it free by opening the clerestory window. Many thanks to him, not least for cleaning up after our unusual guest!

DAVID HENDERSON-SLATER - SPONSORED WALK
